REPORT

ON THE

TRADE AND CUSTOMS

OF

BRITISH BURMA,

FOR

1867-68.

1. THE year about to be reviewed ended on the 31st March 1868 and consisted of the usual period of twelve months, whilst the Report for 1866-67 included the returns for eleven months only, owing to an alteration in the date of closing the official year. In comparing the figures for the two several terms, therefore, due allowance must be made for the difference in time mentioned above.

Duration of Official years 1866-67 and 1867-68.

2. But little experience was had during 1866-67 in the operations of the new Customs' Act XVII of 1867 which became law on the 11th March of the same year, that is 20 days only prior to its close, but in the year just closed it has been found to work very satisfactorily, resulting in a considerable addition to the revenue of the Province, and in no appreciable degree affecting the trade in the goods on which enhanced rates were levied, whilst the export of those goods from which the duty was altogether removed has considerably increased.

Working of Act
XVII of 1867.

3. The general increase shown on both the Exports and Imports of the Province during 1867-68 may be considered satisfactory, when the continued depression which has existed in trade throughout the world be taken into account.

... 4. That our relations with Upper Burma were placed on a firmer footing by the new treaty concluded in October last, is exemplified by the rapid increase in the value of the business done with that country in the past year, being just double that of the preceding year—and it is expected that, not only will the direct trade increase year by year, but a large through traffic will be carried on with Western China, as means of communication are opened out, and our goods become introduced to the knowledge of the people. The latter is the object of the present Mission under Captain Sladen to Talifoo in the Province of Yunan.

5. The Statements X. Y. Z. appended show the principal features of the trade of the Province for the year 1867-68.

Statements showing principal features of trade.

6. The aggregate of the Exports by Sea is but little above that of 1866-67, but if we separate the Treasure from the Merchandise it will be observed the latter exhibits an increase of no less than Rs. 46,37,136, there being a falling off in the value of the former exported of Rs. 39,93,135, or deducting the increase in imported treasure (20 lakhs) there was still a decline in the export treasure of nearly 20 lakhs. This is satisfactory as showing that the real commerce of the Province is in an improving state, and that during the past year the value of the Imports was recouped to a greater extent by the produce of the country and the drain of specie thereby proportionably reduced.

Exports by Sea.

7. Of the Exports, the principal items displaying an improvement are as follows :—

10. The sea-borne Imports of 1867-68 in comparison with those of the previous year evince a very important augmentation in favor of the year under review—Merchandise being about 53 lakhs, and Specie about 20 lakhs, or taking into account the eleven, and twelve, months respectively the real increase is

13. With reference to the Rice trade of the Province, it is observable that this article is not much exported to the Eastward: it appears a large and increasing traffic in this grain is being carried on between the Straits', Chinese and other Ports of the Eastern Seas, and Saigon and Bangkok. It is not, however, probable that the Rice grown in Cochin China and Siam will extensively compete in the European markets with the produce of British Burma.

14. In the accompanying table, embracing both the Sea-borne and Inland Trade, is shown the value of Exports and Imports, and amounts of 'Customs' Duty realized in each Division of the Province during the year as compared with 1866-67, and, as the latter was an imperfect year, the totals for 1865-66 are also noted to enable a fairer estimate to be arrived at :—

Sea-borne and Inland trade of the Province,

15. From the foregoing it will be seen there was a very considerable increase in the trade of 1867-68 over 1866-67, but the Exports in comparison with 1865-66 show a heavy decline, which is owing to the great falling off in the trade of the Arakan and Tenasserim Divisions, the former being to the extent of Rs. 36,28,252, the latter Rs. 32,74,392, and in Pegu the smaller, but still important, sum of Rs. 11,84,862. This decrease is accounted for as follows :—

------------	-----	-----	-------------

16. In Arakan the diminution in the quantity of Rice and Paddy shipped was about 25,000 tons, with a considerable reduction in the stated value per ton. A very small amount of Treasure, both by Government and private parties, was reported in 1867-68.

17. The Timber trade of Tenasserim although considerably improved in the year under review over the previous one, still shows it has not regained its former prosperous condition.

18. The reasons for the decrease on Cotton and Petroleum will be given when commenting upon these commodities in the Pegu Exports.

19. In Imports, also, Arakan and Tenasserim exhibit a falling off—in the first named Division chiefly in Gunny bags and Cotton piece goods, the dealings in both articles being dependant upon the Rice markets; in the last named in Treasure imported by private parties consequent on smaller sums being required for Teak—but this is more than counter-balanced by the increase in the Pegu Division.

20. The addition of nearly a lakh of Rupees to the Customs' Dues realized is attributable to the enhanced rates levied.

21. The Statements as under give the parts of the world with which the Sea-borne trade of British Burma is carried on, grouped as follows :—

22. The above shows that the total value of the Import trade is in excess of the Exports to the extent of Rs. 84,28,035 as compared with Rs. 16,71,965 for the eleven months of 1866-67.

23. Tables showing the totals of both quantities and values of the Sea-borne Trade of the Province, together with a Statement of the Exports and Imports by sea and land, and the Customs' Duty realized thereupon for the past 5 years (including 1867-68) have been prepared, and averages drawn therefrom.

24. The year 1863-64 has been taken as the starting point because the frontier Customs' Dues had been abolished early in that year. In the previous year (1862-63) on an inland trade of about Rs. 1,13,00,000 nearly Rs. 6,00,000 duty had been levied. The value of the trade in 1867-68 was more than double that of the year preceding the removal of the Duty, being about Rs. 2,54,50,000 the Dues on which—may be assumed—would have been at least Rs. 12,00,000.

25. From the Return (No. 1.) appended the results apparent are, that the total value of Exports and Imports, inland and sea-borne, in 1867-68 was Rs. 9,95,09,873 which is Rs. 75,36,806 above the average of the 5 years, including 1867-68. The increase in the last, over the first, year of the term is Rs. 2,90,19,621, the increment being in Pegu and Tenasserim, Arakan exhibiting a falling off. The value of the trade is, however, less than in 1864-65—which was a “bumper year”—by Rs. 39,07,465, the decrease being observable in Arakan and Tenasserim, while Pegu shows a steady increase—1866-67 be it remembered, being an incomplete year. The progress of Advantages pos- Pegu is but natural, considering the advansessed by Pegu. tages she possesses over the other Divisions by having a navigable river on which to convey her commerce into the heart of Upper Burma.

26. The transactions in Treasure have been very variable
Transactions in and have had a great deal to do with these Treasure variable. results. It may be observed that Specie has a two-fold action, that is to say, when trade is slack less is imported, but when brisk, the value of the trade is enhanced by large importations of coin.

27. As regards Customs' duty the receipts in 1867-68
Customs' Dues. show an increase over the previous year of eleven months of Rs. 8,02,322, and over the average of the 5 years of Rs. 2,32,469—an increase is also visible over 1865-66 of Rs. 96,376—but there is an unfavorable comparison with the year 1864-65 by Rs. 46,917.

28. In the attached Statement (No. 2) of EXPORTS by Export by Sea for Sea during the last 5 years, it will be noticed 5 years. that the trade in Cutch had been on the decline from 1863-64 to 1866-67, but in 1867-68 a vast increase is exhibited, which exceeds the mean of the Cutch. quinquennial period by maunds 37,938 and
Rs. 5,62,518.

29. Hides also show a gradual diminution in the four Hides. previous years, but a great improvement in the last year, and an excess over the average of Rs. 37,652. The increased exportation of this article is an indication of deaths by murrian, and offers no scope for congratulation.

30. Horns and Ivory evince no inconsiderable increase.
Horns, Ivory and In Jade Stones the trade has mended greatly
Jade. in 1867-68, exceeding the mean by maunds
2,885 value Rs. 2,02,317.

The average of the value of Jade is somewhat above the proper figure in consequence of the tariff rate in 1863-64 having been about thrice that since recorded. In subsequent years this article has been valued at a fixed rate of 100 Rs. per maund instead of at a fluctuating ad valorem rate.

31. Lead is in excess, maunds 3,531 Rupees 38,063. Miscellaneous goods exhibit a gradual improvement for the whole term of 5 years, and exceed the average by about 8 lakhs of Rupees.

Lead and Miscellaneous.

32. The Exports of 1867-68 displaying a decrease on the average of the 5 years are :—

Exports showing a decrease

33. The principal fluctuations in Export have taken place in Cotton, Cutch, Petroleum, Rice and Paddy, Timber, and Treasure; it is somewhat remarkable that no one article has shown a steady annual increase during the last 5 years. This, in a measure, is owing to the dullness of trade in 1866-67 and 1867-68, but many articles which improved in 1864-65 display a falling off in the subsequent year 1865-66, which was the most important for the whole period.

34. The annexed Table (No. 3) gives the IMPORTS by Sea for the 5 years ending 31st March last, and from it will be observed the Import trade of 1867-68 compares very favorably with the average.

Imports by Sea for 5 years.

35. The undernoted figures show that the value of Merchandise imported in the year under review was much in excess of any previous year; but in Treasure there is a considerable diminution both on the average total and on those of the first three years of the period included in the Return :—

38. The items of Import exhibiting a steady increase are Betel-nuts, Cotton, Twist and Yarn, Cutlery, Cotton piece goods (except in 1866-67,) Spirits, Wines, Beer, &c., Timber, Tobacco and Miscellaneous : which Crockery, Gunny bags, Hardware, Silk and Woollen piece goods, Silk, Sugar and Treasure, have been very fluctuating.

39. The accompanying Statements A. B. C. D. show, respectively, the effect of Act XVII of 1867 upon the principal articles of Import—on which the tariff rates, &c. were increased.

Export—on which the rates of duty were enhanced.

Import—on which reduced rates of duty, &c. were levied.

Export—which were declared free.

These returns, with the exception of that of Grain exported, which has been completed in the Chief Commissioner's Office, are imperfect, owing to the non-receipt of information from the Arakan Division.

40. The most important Imports passed through the Rangoon Custom House under enhanced rates of duty and tariff value (Statement A.) were as follows :—

Belel-nuts.—The increase in quantity is cwts. 9,284, and in the amount of duty realized Rupees 7,892.
A. Imports with enhanced rates of duty and valuation.

Cotton thread in reels—shows a diminution in lbs. 121, but an increase in duty of Rupees 32-6.

Gums—have, comparatively, increased considerably in quantity with a corresponding augmentation in the duty realized.

Liquors.—The addition to the rate levied on Sparkling Wines has not tended to reduce the quantity imported—on the contrary the increase is in gallon 1,853, and the duty received is in excess of 1866-67 by Rupees 3,685. The return from Maulmain however shows a falling off.

Oils, both Cocoanut and Linseed, exhibit a considerable increase, although the rate of duty thereupon has been augmented large

Cocoanut—Gallons,	19,191	Duty Rs.	2,482
Linseed—	„ 10,122	„	1,713

There is a net increase on the Customs' dues received on Sugar of Rs. 424.

Silk—raw and thread—displays a very favorable increase over the previous year, being in

1866-67 ... „	3,765	„	1,413

At Maulmain a small increment in the quantity of Steel imported is shown.

41. Statement B. sets forth the two chief articles of Export upon which the rates of duty were raised.

* B. Exports upon which duty was increased.

The Rice returns are from the Ports of Rangoon, Bassein, Maulmain, and Akyab, and those of Stick-lac from the three first named ports only.

Grain of all kinds—shows a very satisfactory increase over 1866-67, the totals being as follows:—

1867-68	...	Mds.	7,251,912	Duty Rs.	13,91,104
1866-67	...	„	5,078,772	„	6,84,486
Increase			2,73,140		7,06,618

Stick-lac, however, exhibits a decrease both in quantity and amount of duty—on the former cwts. 946, and the latter Rs. 613.

42. The Imports with reduced rates of valuation and duty (Statement C.) are Cotton Twist, Piece goods, and Metals. The first named imported into Rangoon has an increase over the preceding year of lbs. 695,240, and the amount of duty realized is in excess by Rs. 22,609.

C. Imports with reduced Duty, &c.

The net increase in the duty received in the Rangoon Custom House on Piece Goods is Rs 16,234.

On Metals there is a slight increase in the duty on Imports into Rangoon, but a considerable falling off on the Maulmain return.

43. The articles of Export which were declared free of duty by the Act under notice are herewith given, together with the increase in the quantities shipped in 1867-68 over the shipments of 1866-67 :—

44. The trade of the several Divisions will be remarked upon apart, and first in geographical position is

ARAKAN.

45. The Statement hereunder given represents the totals of the trade of this Division in the year just closed, in comparison with the aggregates of Exports, Imports and Custom's duty realized for the previous year.

Increase...	...	21,58,105	14,32,948	1,43,762

46. This shows an improvement to the extent of about four per cent over 1866-67, after making due allowance for the difference in the period of time included in the Official years.

47. In the following table we have a list of EXPORTS on which there has been an increase :—
Exports—increase.

Rice and Paddy, ...	Tons.	81,391	37,43,860	97,876	39,62,961	16,485	2,19,101

48. The increase over 1866-67 both in the quantity and value of Rice and Paddy shipped is considerable; still the total quantity is less than the average of preceding years by about 22,500 tons.

This falling off is not in the production of the soil, for at the close of the official year the stocks in Akyab ready for shipment were from 20,000 to 25,000 tons, but is owing to the paucity of tonnage available.

Freights ruled very high, but the supply of ships was not equal to the demand. The enhancement of the duty from 2 to 3 annas per maund has in no degree affected the trade.

49. Cutch is the only other item, the increase of which calls for notice; the excess value of this article exported in 1867-68 over the previous year was Rs. 26,248.

50. The following Statement displays the EXPORTS with Exports—decrease. a decrease :—

51. The reduction in Timber is ascribed to a want of shipping for Railway sleepers to Calcutta; it is also stated that the Ironwood jungles near the margin of the creeks around Akyab have become exhausted.

52. The diminution in the amount of Specie exported, amounting to Rupees 9,38,507, arises chiefly from the remittances of Government Treasury to Calcutta being less than in the preceding year.

53. The two Statements which follow set forth the Imports of Arakan during 1866-67 and 1867-68 and respectively show the increase and decrease :—

54. The increase in the importation of Gunny bags arises from the enhanced exportation of Rice. The trade in Gunnies is always dependant upon the abundance, or otherwise, of the Rice crops, and the buoyancy of the Rice trade, and in the case of Akyab represents a very satisfactory result.

55. There is a considerable addition in Woollen stuff imported, which is attributed to the Natives preferring Woollen to Cotton jackets.

56. Timber.—An insignificant increase is observable in this article owing to a shipment of planks from Singapore.

57. Larger amounts of Specie were forwarded from other parts of the world on account of Rice than were utilized, hence a considerable amount was re-exported. The increase in the value of Imports arises chiefly from the excess importation of Treasure.

58. The falling off in the Imports of Cotton Twist and Yarn and Cotton and Silk piece goods is stated to be due to the short quantity of grain shipped in 1866-67. Transactions in the one market to a large extent depending upon the other.

59. The decrease in Crockery-ware and Tobacco is set down to the few arrivals from the Straits, and that in Tobacco to cautious dealing on the part of the native traders, who have suffered losses for a year or two past.

60. The Customs' duty of the Division has been augmented to the very satisfactory extent of Rupees 1,43,752 entirely from Exports, there being a slight decrease in the amount realized from Imports through a large proportion of these goods having already had duty paid upon them either in Calcutta or Rangoon. The excess importation of Treasure does not effect the duty.

P E G U.

61. The trade of this Division is partly sea-borne and partly inland; Customs' duty being levied on the former only.

62. The following Statement sets forth the value of the sea-borne trade of 1866-67 and 1867-68, and shows the increase in the latter year over the former :—

Years.	Imports.	Exports.	Total.	Customs.
1866-67, ...	221,33,325	202,18,182	423,51,507	7,82,854
1867-68, ...	268,90,626	212,83,657	481,74,283	14,08,045
Increase...	47,57,301	10,65,475	58,22,776	6,25,191
Decrease...

63. It will be observed that there is a great improvement in the year under review over the totals of the preceding year; but there is a decrease of no less than Rs. 91,01,181 on those of 1865-66, principally in Exports. The Customs' duty is nearly double that of 1866-67, and exceeds the aggregate of 1865-66 by Rs. 10,303.

64. EXPORTS.—Copper.—The quantity of this metal exported during the year was 823 maunds, of the value of Rs. 21,452, against 324 maunds and Rs. 13,795 in 1866-67. There appears a considerable difference in the stated value of this substance for the respective periods—some of it being old copper from off worn out ships.

65. Cotton, raw.—The falling off in the Export of this staple still continues, being for the year maunds 11,060 valued at Rupees 2,94,192 as follows :—

1866-67,	...	Maunds	45,131	Rs	8,77,751
1867-68,	...	„	34,071	„	5,83,559
			<hr/>		<hr/>
Decrease,			11,060	Rs	2,94,192
			<hr/>		<hr/>

This decline is chiefly due to the depreciation in value in the Home marts, and consequent low prices ranging here last season, causing perhaps less cultivation and inducing the growers in the interior to look for better markets for what they do produce in the direction of China, where there is a considerable demand for this article. Larger quantities also are used by the natives in the manufacture of clothing, &c.

66. Cutch.—The Export of this substance has very much increased since the duty was taken off under Act XVII of 1867. The quantities for the two years are as follows :—

1866-67,	..	Maunds	70,136	Rs	3,55,672
• 1867-68,	...	„	150,848	„	12,12,966
			<hr/>		<hr/>
Increase,			80,712	Rs	8,57,294
			<hr/>		<hr/>

67. Hides.—The increase in the number shipped is considerable, being 73,087 of the value of Rs. 58,128, and is attributable to the supplies brought down from Upper Burma owing to murrain among farm cattle.

68. Horns.—A small increment only No. 9,686 value
Horns. Rs. 4,283.

69. Ivory.—The quantity exported is augmented large-
Ivory. ly, being 201 maunds, value Rs. 52,490.
against 73 maunds value Rs. 18,314 in the previous year.

70. Jade Stones.—The exportation of this article has Jade. considerably improved since the removal of the duty hitherto levied thereon :—

.. Much of it, after being worked up into ornaments, is sent back from China, as these ornaments are highly appreciated by the people of this and the adjoining territories.

71. Lead.—Shows also a large increase over 1866-67—
Lead. the quantity for that year being 1,339 mds.
valued at Rs. 10,210 against 6,756 mds. and Rs. 64,655 in the year under review. Maunds 6,827 of this metal were imported from beyond the frontier during the year, a very small per centage of which appears to have been used locally.

72. Orpiment.—(Yellow sulphide of Arsenic) a sub-Orpiment. stance chiefly utilized as a pigment, and by pyrotechnists, has considerably fallen off during the past year :—

1866-67,	...	Maunds	1,562	Rs.	35,259
1867-68,	...	"	807	"	20,150
				<hr/>
Decrease,...				755	Rs. 15,109
				<hr/>

The entire quantity was entered for export to the "Home Ports subject to the Government of India."

73. Petroleum.—The total Imports of this "hydro-carbon" from beyond the frontier was maunds

Petroleum. 1,56,422, showing an increase over the preceding year of maunds 38,187. This large aggregate appears to have been mainly used within this Division; the maunds 14,113 exported was taken principally to the other Divisions of the Province. The shipments for foreign ports have always been, and are likely to continue, small, owing to the preference given to American oil.

74. Rice and Paddy.—Notwithstanding the extra duty imposed upon Grain under Act XVII of 1867 there has been a large increase in the quantity of the above-mentioned article exported, viz., Rangoon, tons 55,283, Bassein, tons 10,471. The totals are as follows :—

1866-67,	...	Tons 1,34,548	Rs. 74,12,897
1867-68,	...	" 2,00,302	" 97,86,693

From the chief port (Rangoon) the duty paying cargoes were tons 1,32,586 value Rs. 66,04,197 as against tons 76,278 and Rs. 43,82,971 in 1866-67. The average prices per 100 baskets were for—

The shipments from Bassein during the closing months of the year 1867-68 seem to have been curtailed through the want of freight following on the engagement of so many ships in Calcutta and elsewhere for the Abyssinian expedition, and the consequent high rates prevailing. The average price for cargo Rice in this port was Rs. 124-8 in the past year, and Rs. 144-8 in the previous one.

75. Precious Stones.—The Imports of this article from Upper Burma show an increase of above Rs. 25,000, but there is a decrease on the Exports from Rangoon of Rs. 13,315. In 1866-67 the total value was Rs. 2,41,725, and in 1867-68 Rs. 2,28,410.

76. Stick-lac.—A small decrease will also be observed in this commodity, the figures being 3,016 maunds and 2,971 maunds for 1866-67 and 1867-68 respectively.

77. Timber.—This trade continues dull, and there has been a slight falling off as will be seen from the following aggregates :—

1866 67,	Tons	19,217	Rs	10,91,159
1867 68,	„	17,173	„	9,18,828
Decrease,		1,774	Rs	1,45,631

The demand for Europe has improved, but a smaller quantity has been shipped to the Home ports subject to the Government of India. Maulmain is, however, the chief port for the exportation of Timber.

78. Tobacco.—A decrease to the extent of 2,515 mds. has taken place in Tobacco, which is caused by the exports to the Provincial ports having been less in the past year.

79. Treasure.—There has been a decrease of no less than Rs. 27,27,747 in the amount of Treasure exported by private parties, which as already observed may be considered rather satisfactory, tending as it does to show that the value of Imports is, to a greater degree than in the previous year, being met by Exports, and the balance of trade more equalized.

80. Sundries.—In the value of goods included under this heading there has been a very fair increase of Rs. 5,66,989 in Rangoon, and Rs. 7,532 in Bassein.

81. Imports.—The Import trade by Sea during the year has shown a great improvement over that of 1866-67—after allowing that the latter comprised only 11 months—the increase being nearly a half a crore of Rupees or half a million sterling; whilst the duty realized in this department, notwithstanding that many articles were transferred to the free list under Act No XVII of 1867 is Rs. 1,13,112 more than that of the previous year.

Of the principal articles of Import:—

82. Betel-nuts.—Contrary to the preceding year there has been a decrease in the value, but an increase in the quantity imported, thus:—

1866-67	Maunds	1,01,550	Rs	12,14,837
1867-68,	,	1,28,435	„	10,96,693

Increase, 23,585

Decrease, , Rs 1,18,144

83. Cotton Twist and Yarn—Shows the enormous increase of Rs. 9,58,309 over 1866-67, viz:—

Cotton Twist and Yarn	1867-68	..	lbs	26,62,295	Rs	29,61,852
	1866-67,	...	„	16,07,415	„	20,03,543
				—————		—————
			Increase,	10,54,880	,	Rs 9,58,309

84. Crockery-ware.—There is a decrease of Rs. 33,497
Crockery-ware. in the value of this article.

85. Cutlery.—The market for these goods appears to Cutlery. be steady, but there is no material increase to notice.

86. Gunny bags.—The eleven months of 1866-67 closed
Gunnies. with a decrease in the quantity and value of bags imported. In the year under review the increase has been very considerable—in No. 4,81,962 and value Rs. 1,15,635—which may be noted as the criterion of a good rice season.

87. Hardware.—In the value of this commodity there
Hardware. is a nominal improvement of Rs. 6,424.

88. Piece Goods.—The Cotton and Silk goods market Piece Goods. has shown immense elasticity with the reopening of the trade with Upper Burma;
and for Woollens there is a constant demand, although at reduced prices.

The additional value of these staples imported in 1867-68 as compared with 1866-67 is nearly 26 lakhs of Rupees or £2,60,000, of which no less than 22 lakhs value were taken for the markets beyond the frontier.

The future extension of this trade may be looked upon as a certainty if Upper Burma remains tranquil, as thereby our commercial relations with the interior must be gradually improved, but a great deal remains yet to be accomplished in the way of routes and roads.

The total quantities and value of the respective goods passed through the Custom Houses of Rangoon and Bassein during the last two official years are as follows :—

91. Sugar.—A small increase of mds. 5,246 and Rs. 45,379 will be observed in this commodity.

Sugar.

92. Timber.—Exhibits a decrease of tons 296—Rupees 35,489.

Timber.

93. Tobacco.—The importations of this “narcotic” in the eleven months of 1866-67, were very large, and, without doubt, overstocked the market, hence there is a considerable falling off in the quantity brought in during the last year. In the former the total was mds. 1,33,162, Rs. 15,48,806, and in the latter mds. 90,848, Rs. 10,69,727, or a decrease of mds. 42,314, Rs. 4,79,079.

94. Treasure.—The Specie imported by private parties is slightly in excess of the preceding year, being Rs. 44,86,281 against Rs. 44,74,321, an increase of Rs. 11,960.

95. Sundries.—Under which all commodities not named above are embraced, show a total improvement of Rs. 16,52,583, which is attributable in some degree to the reduction in tariff rates and the removal of duty from minor articles.

96. There has been a considerable increase in the quantity of foreign Salt received, but a heavy decline in the quantity from the other Divisions of the Province.

97. TONNAGE.—The following table gives the number of Vessels, with their tonnage, which conveyed the sea-borne merchandise of the Pegu Division during the last two years :—

Exhibiting an increase of 78 ships and 51,649 tons over the 11 months of the preceding year. There is also an improvement in the capacity of each vessel, the average of 1866-67 being tons 398, and of 1867-68 tons 428.

98. TREATY GOODS.—Under the Treaty with the King of Burma all goods imported into Rangoon and declared through the Custom House for export to the territories of Upper Burma, and also to China, are chargeable with a duty of one per cent only. This duty is levied as an encouragement to the traders, and more for the purpose of securing an account of the value of such goods than for the revenue realized.

The undernoted Statements furnish the amounts of goods so declared during the year under review and the previous one, and exhibit a considerable increase, which is attributable to the more settled state of the country; the firm basis on which the treaty engagements are now placed; and to the reduction and regulation of Customs' dues on the Burmese side.

INLAND TRADE OF PEGU.

99. The Inland Trade of this Division is carried on with Upper Burma via Thayet-myo, on the Irrawaddy, and Toung-oo, on the Sittang river—and all goods in transit are passed free of duty through the Frontier Custom Houses at these stations.

100. The value of the traffic is set forth in the following statistics :—

PLACES.	Exports	Imports.	Total.
	Rupees.	Rupees.	Rupees.
THAYET-MYO, ... { 1866-67,	64,73,319	47,01,379	111,74,698

... { 1867-68,	9,58,109	8,60,469	18,18,578

From which it will be observed, that whilst the trade via Thayet-myo has more than doubled, that by the Toung-oo route has not at all increased, if it be remembered that the official year of 1866-67 was only eleven months. This is attributable to the difficulties in navigating the Sittang river. The aggregate shows Rs. 254,51,490 for the past year against Rs. 128,90,202 for the anterior eleven months.

101. It may not be uninteresting to note here the progress of our inland trade since the frontier duties on the British side were removed in June 1863 :—

102. The trade during 1866-67 was affected to a great extent by the rebellion in Upper Burma, the chief falling off being in the produce of that country itself, (Imports), which would, as a matter of course, be much interfered with by the armed bands of lawless men traversing the various districts. But since the country has become more settled the trade has improved with rapid strides, and for the past 12 months the increase is, on Exports 60·97 per cent, and Imports 65·42, over the average of the last five years. This is very satisfactory, and, without doubt, further impetus will be given to the trade in the future by the reduction in the duty under the new Treaty to 5 per cent ad valorem on all goods excepting Earth Oil, Timber and Precious Stones, which are Royal monopolies.

103. The establishment of a Civil Court under our Political Agent for the decision of cases between British subjects, and the firmer basis secured by the revised treaty, will all tend to insure confidence and make trade more brisk—but the teeming cities of China remain to be reached and the vast inland trade of that province directed down the Irrawaddy rather than through the tempestuous seas which wash the southern coasts of Asia.

104. Under this Treaty, also, the British Government stipulates that it will not re-impose the frontier duty, abolished by the Treaty of 1862, so long as there is no increase made in the per centage leviable by the Burmese Government.

105. By Article VIII of the Treaty under notice free trade is allowed in the Import and Export of Gold and Silver Bullion.

106. EXPORTS.—Betel-nuts.—In this important article there has been a net increase of mds. 9,941 but a decrease in value of Rs. 11,490. There was a falling off on the Tounng-oo returns of mds. 459 and Rs. 24,088, which is attributed to the market having been glutted in the previous year.

107. Cotton, Silk and Woollen Goods.—On the quantities and value of Cotton twist and yarn, and Cotton, Silk, and Woollen piece goods, there is a very important increase as will be seen from the following figures:—

109. Rice and Paddy.—The revision of the tariff seems to have had considerable effect on the trade in this grain, the increment being no less than tons 79,093 value Rs. 32,24,186, thus:—

111. IMPORTS.—As before stated, the increase on the aggregate of this portion of the Inland Trade has been very considerable, and the majority of articles show an improvement as follows :—

113. From the first of these two Statements it will be seen that the undermentioned staples give the principal increase for the year under review :—

Raw Cotton,	Rs.	1,63,378
Cutch,	"	2,04,099
Juggery and Molasses,	"	3,26,541

Sessamum Oil,	"	99,550
Tea—pickled,	"	1,00,773
Miscellaneous,	"	34,39,306

114. The Cotton piece goods imported consist of coarse stuffs worn in Upper Burma, partly from native thread, but chiefly from Cotton twist exported from British Burma.

115. The increase in Miscellaneous is accounted for by the quantity of Treasure sent down, the import of Silver alone being of the value of Rs. 40,34,000.

116. The decrease in the quantity of Timber imported appears to have been caused by some misunderstanding with the Burmese Government in the working of the Nin-gyan forests.

117. There was a considerable falling off in the value of Lacquered-ware via Toung-oo, owing to the disturbances in the Shan country.

TENASSERIM.

118. The commerce of Tenasserim appears to be on the decline, for although there is an apparent increase in Exports of Rs. 3,03,665 and Imports Rs. 3,94,637 during the year under review, there is really a falling off in comparison with the 11 months of 1866-67. The aggregate of Imports and Exports for the last named period was Rs. 131,90,747 which equalled Rs. 11,99,159 per month, and for the twelve months of 1867-68 Rs. 138,89,043 or an average of Rs. 11,57,420 only per mens.

119. EXPORTS.—The following Statement shows this portion of the trade of this Division with the increase and decrease as compared with the preceding official year:—

Total			65,25,816		68,29,481		10,34,556		7,30,891

120. It will be noticed, with satisfaction, that there has been a considerable increase in the chief staple of Export—Timber—which is attributed to a general improvement in the trade and larger demands from Indian and Provincial ports.

121. The increment in the value of Sundries is also satisfactory, and Lead and Orpiment yellow have been added to considerably.

122. The most prominent decrease is that in Rice and Paddy, tons 4,423, Rs. 2,98,639, which may in some measure be ascribable to the enhanced rate of duty, but is mainly owing to the abatement in the demand. In 1866-67 heavy shipments were made on account of Government to Orissa, in consequence of the famine there, which terminated early in the year under notice.

123. The falling off in the exportation of Treasure by private parties is doubtless imputable to the dullness of trade; and in Cotton to the prices in the European markets for the Indian staple being less remunerative.

124. IMPORTS.—The undernoted Comparative Return exhibits the state of the Import trade for the last two years :—

125. From the foregoing it will be seen that Cotton
Twist and Yarn, and Cotton, Silk and Wool- len piece goods furnish the largest proportion of the increase shown, and these valuable additions together with those in Betel-nut and Raw Silk are attributable to the brisker trade in Timber which prevailed. The amount of Specie imported also increased, and was no doubt chiefly appropriated to the purchase of Teak.

126. The decrease in Gunny bags is of course owing to the falling off in the shipments of Rice;
 and that in Tobacco to the large importation which took place in 1866-67, resulting in heavy stocks at the commencement of the past year.

127. The Customs' Revenue of the Division is in excess of the previous year by Rs. 33,339, of which
 Rs. 28,709 were realized in Maulmain, and the remainder in Tavoy and Mergui.

4. There was a falling off in the total value of Exports to the amount of Rs. 7,25,157 during the year under report, while there was an increase of Rs. 21,58,105 in the Imports—details of these will be given in subsequent paragraphs.

5. Statement Y. exhibits the Exports and Imports under the several heads as well as the collection of Customs Duties in the Division. The following table shows the transactions of the past two years :—

CUSTOMS' DUTY.
1866-67,	2,93,367
1867-68,	4,37,129
		Increase...	1,43,762

6. The details of the Export of Grain and Timber from the Division are given in Statement Z. The quantity of Grain exported during the year was 97,876 tons of the value of Rs. 39,62,961—Timber 1,134 tons valued at Rs. 69,498.

7. I herewith submit copies of the Reports (marginally noted) and Returns received from the Collector of Customs and the Deputy Commissioner, Ramree, with the following remarks:—

Collector of Customs No. — dated 9th instant.
Deputy Commissioner, Ramree, No. 1, dated 8th instant.

AKYAB CUSTOM HOUSE.

8. The following was the value of Exports and Imports for the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 :—

1866-67,	1,04,82,481
1867-68,	1,18,39,709
Increase*			13,57,228

or say about £135,700* Sterling.

9. But the Export* trade declined by nearly 8 lakhs, and this, although last year was a complete year, while the previous year was one of 11 months only. Cutch, Hides, Horns, Ivory, and Rice and Paddy show an increase; Copper, Cotton, Tobacco, and Treasure a decrease.

10. The Collector of Customs gives the following list of increase :—

		INCREASE.	DECREASE.
Copper,	0	1,842
Cotton, raw,	...	0	4,094
Cutch,	...	26,348	0
Hides,	...	21	0
Horns,	...	3,189	0
Ivory,	...	970	0
Lead,	...	40	0
Rice and Paddy,	...	2,12,966	0
Timber,	...	0	10,891
Tobacco,	...	0	136
Treasure, Government,	...	0	8,50,000
Do. Private,	0	1,43,507
Articles not enumerated,	...	0	24,270
Rupees*		2,43,534	10,34,740

11. The increase in Cutch Rs. 26,348, and Rice and Paddy Rs. 2,12,966 are noticeable. The decrease in Timber nearly Rs. 11,000 is satisfactorily and I believe correctly accounted for in Mr. Brown's 11th para. "Timber—there is a “falling off in this, chiefly owing I believe to tonnage not “being available for carrying Railway Sleepers to Calcutta,
 “and likewise to the fact that the Iron wood jungles near the “margin of the creeks in Akyab have been exhausted.”

12. It will be seen that to the very large decrease in the Export of Treasure (Government $8\frac{1}{2}$ lakhs, and Private Rs. 1,43,507) is to be attributed the total decrease of the Export values of the year. The Collector of Customs has these remarks on the subject, “Again there has been a “falling off in the Export of Private Treasure amounting to “Rs. 1,43,507, and as I have heretofore reported, can only “be accounted for by people preferring to remit through “the Banks than risk sending Coin by the Steamers. An-
 “other Bank started during the year.”

13. The increase in the value of Imports is considerably over Rupees twenty-one lakhs. The figures are—

1866-67,	Rs. 51,31,616
1867-68,	„ 72,80,050

			Increase...21,48,434

14. The principal articles making this increase are Gunnies, Woollen Piece Goods, Timber, Treasure, Wines and Beer, and articles not enumerated. Of these I specially notice—

Gunny Bags, (increase)	...	2,05,872
Woollen Goods,	...	32,887
Timber,	...	15,625
Treasure,	...	18,19,558
Articles not enumerated,	...	3,01,257

The Collector of Customs' remarks, "Gunny Bags; a greater number being required, as the export of Rice was greater than in the former year. Woollen Piece Goods has increased by Rs. 32,887, the natives appear to prefer a Woollen to a Cotton Jacket, but I expect this is only fashion with them. The increase in Timber is owing chiefly to a quantity of Planks being brought from Singapore."

15. Mr. Brown's remarks in his 25th para. are deserving of notice. I extract them for readier reference. "The falling off in Cotton Piece Goods and Silk Piece Goods is in my opinion owing to the short quantity of grain shipped in 1866-67. It generally follows that after a bumper season the import of these articles increases, and a short export of Rice causes the reverse, and this year, 1867-68, there has been a greater quantity of Woollen Piece Goods imported, which of course affects the Cotton Piece Goods trade."

The Duty realized was as shown below :—

1866-67,	...	Rs. 2,93,367
1867-68,	...	„ 4,37,129
		<hr/>
		Increase... 1,43,762

16. About £43,700 is a very satisfactory sum of Custom Duties to be levied in this comparatively small Port, and the cost of the Establishment by which it is collected, viz., Rs. 14,730 is only 3·37 per cent of the amount.

17. The remarks in the Collector of Customs' para. 31,

"The above shows an increase of Rs. 1,43,762 entirely owing to Exports, for there was a decrease of Rs. 1,511 in Imports. A large quantity of Imports are received via Calcutta and Rangoon, at which Ports the Import Duty is often paid.

marginally extracted, deserve attention, especially the concluding clause.

18. It appears that nearly 1,00,000 tons of Rice valued at about £400,000 were shipped during the year. The Collector of Customs' remarks in his 34th para. as follows :—"The "above figures show an increase both in quantity and value, yet the quantity exported during the past year falls short of the average export by, in round numbers, 23,000 tons, and which most assuredly would have been exported (if not more) had ships been available; indeed, from enquiries I have made there appears to be from 20 to 25,000 tons of Rice in store in the Merchant's godowns and ready for shipment. Ships are eagerly taken up at even the high freight of from £1-7-0 to £1-15-0, and at these high rates sufficient tonnage cannot be obtained." I have to add that freights have since touched £5, but are now averaging £1-17-6.

19. Mr. Brown's remarks in his 35th para. on the enhanced Grain duty (marginally given) show that he pays attention to matters connected with his department, and would doubtless be agreeable to Mr. Massey.

"In March 1867 the duty on Grain was increased and the Merchants had an idea that they were to be ruined thereby, but from all accounts the reverse was the result of the shipments, for there was more money made by Rice last year than had been made for years. One firm, that ships from 3 Ports, it is said made over 7 (seven) lakhs of Rupees. Of course this cheerful state of things was not caused by the increased rate of duty, but chiefly by the short quantity of grain exported which sent up prices in Europe."

20. His 37th para. is also deserving of notice. "It is only occasionally that Grain is shipped to the Straits, and so far as this Port is concerned may be said to have ceased. Saigon is now the favorite Port with the Straits' traders, and there is every reason to suppose that the trade there will interfere considerably with our grain trade with Europe, for not only is grain cheaper at Saigon than in British Burma, but shipping can be obtained at lower rates for Saigon than for our Ports, for the Masters of ships from China and the Straits would prefer the near Port of Saigon to one of ours more distant." I have had the opportunity of reading the Administration Report of this French Settlement (Saigon) for the last year. It appears to enjoy a brisk and increasing trade with Europe, but considering our rapidly increasing population and our enormous area of cultivable land, in British Burma, I cannot look upon Saigon as a dangerous rival even in the rice trade. And I think Saigon rice commands a very low figure in the market. *

21. Mr. Brown reports that “ during the past year a “ branch of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China “ was established in Akyab, affording the Merchants, as regards money, far more facilities than they had before.”

PORT OF KYOUK-PHYOO.

22. The value of the Exports and Imports of Kyouk-Phyoo has nearly doubled this year as compared with last, the total value for 1866-67 having been only Rs. 79,628, while this year, 1867-68, it is Rs. 1,55,340. But I am sorry to say this is in a small measure only due to a real increase of trade. The Government remittances of Treasure appear in these amounts : which

In 1866 67 were (exported)	Rs	70,000
1867 68		1,25,000
	Increase .	55,000

23. Of the increase in Imports, which, insignificant as they are, are nearly three times as much as they were in the previous year; the Deputy Commissioner says, “ the increase in Imports is entirely due to private enterprize, “ being increased Import of goods and money to purchase “ and export Salt, Paddy and Iron wood Sleepers.”

24. The Deputy Commissioner goes on to say, “ the “ trade therefore of Ramree District, due to private enterprize “ during 1867-68 is represented by a value of Rs. 30,348, a “ miserably small one when the size, the population and the “ internal water communications of the District are taken “ into consideration ; but with steam communication with the “outer world, the trade of the District would receive that stimulus which it requires so much. Mercantile Agencies would be certain to spring up, and a general benefit diffused through the District.” I fully concur with him that regular steam communication with this District is the only apparent means of opening up its trade, inviting capital and enterprize, and developing its resources. In my letter No. 69 of the 13th instant, I have made an earnest special appeal to the Chief Commissioner on the subject.

25. On Salt, Paddy and Iron wood, the Deputy Commissioner reports as follows :—

“The principal Exports during 1867-68 were Salt, Paddy and Iron wood Sleepers, as follows, contrasted with 1866-67.

YEARS.	Salt. Value.	Paddy. Value.	Iron wood Sleepers.	Remarks.
1866-67, ...	4,235	...*	...	* Crops destroyed in Cheduba.
1867-68, ...	9,282	6,135	1,960
Increase, ...	5,047	6,135	1,960

“Increase export, Salt, owing to better market price at Bassein, Akyab and Rangoon. Increase in Iron wood Sleepers owing to the presence of an Agency established for the collection of Sleepers for the Indian Railways.”

26. I beg strongly to recommend to the Chief Commissioner's attention the Deputy Commissioner's remarks respecting the visits of the Rangoon Mail Steamers to his Port, contained in para. 7 of his report.

3. The following is the actual value of Imports and Exports for 1866-67 and 1867-68 :—

			<hr/>
			Decrease Rupees... 7,91,206
			<hr/>

5. The above shows a decrease of Rupees 7,91,206, and this, notwithstanding that the year 1866-67 only included 11 months.

6. The articles giving increase are Cutch, Hides, Horns, Ivory, Lead, and Rice and Paddy.

13. The falling off in articles not enumerated include a number of articles of petty value and require no special notice.

14. The amount value of Imports by Sea for 1866-67 and 1867-68, was as follows :—

1866-67,	Rs. 51,31,616
1867-68,	„ 72,80,050
Increase Rupees...			21,48,434

15. The above gives an increase for the year 1867-68 of Rupees 21,48,434. The chief articles giving this increase are Gunnies, Woollen Piece Goods, Timber, Treasure, Wines and Beer, and articles not enumerated,

16. The following shows the increase and decrease under the several heads :—

	Increase.	Decrease.
Betel-nuts,	7,090
Cotton Twist Yarn,	38,806
Crockery-ware,	33,760
Cutlery, ...	1,817	...
Gunny Bags, ...	2,05,872	...

Cotton Piece Goods,	83,550
Silk	54,050
Woollen „ „ ...	32,887	...
Silk, raw,	1,450
Spirituous Liquors, ...	3,249	...
Sugar, ...	5,012	...
Timber, ...	15,625	...
Tobacco,	45,016
Treasure, ... { Government,	83,001	...
Private,	17,36,557	...
Wines and Beer, ...	24,444	...
Articles not enumerated, ...	3,01,257	...
Rupees...	24,12,156	2,63,722

17. The first article of increase that deserves notice is Gunny bags, a greater number being required, as the export of Rice was greater than in the former year.

18. Woollen Piece Goods has increased by Rs. 32,887, the Natives appear to prefer a Woollen to a Cotton jacket, but I expect this is only fashion with them.

19. Spirituous liquors have increased by Rs. 3,249, but there was a decrease in quantity, not I expect to be deplored.

20. Sugar increased both in quantity and value, the whole being for local consumption.

21. The increase in Timber is owing chiefly to a quantity of Planks having been brought from Singapore.

22. The large increase in Treasure, Rs. 18,19,558, at first sight appears strange, when it is considered that the value of grain exported was in excess of the former year by only Rs. 2,00,000; however, the increase is chiefly on account of Rice purchased (and yet to be purchased) and stored, as will be noted hereafter.

23. There is an increase in Wines and Beer and also in articles not enumerated, which cannot be well accounted for.

24. There was a small falling off in the Imports of Betel-nut, the native traders I presume were cautious this year, for they had been bitten for one or two years.

25. The falling off in Cotton Twist, Cotton Piece Goods and Silk Piece Goods is in my opinion owing to the short quantity of grain shipped in 1866-67. It generally follows that after a bumper season the import of these articles increase, and a short export of rice causes the reverse—and this year 1867-68 there has been a greater quantity of Woollen piece goods imported, which of course affects the Cotton goods trade.

26. We have had but one or two vessels from the Straits, hence the falling off in Crockery-ware.

27. There has been a falling off in Tobacco, and the remark on Betel-nut (para. 24) is applicable to Tobacco.

28. Statement Y. which gives the total value of Exports and Imports and amount of Duty realized thereon for 1866-67, shows as follows :—

YEARS.			Total value of Mercandize.	Total amount of Duty realized.
1866-67,	104,82,481	2,93,369
1867-68,	118,39,709	4,37,129
Increase...			13,57,228	1,43,762

29. The value of Stores, including Treasure imported on the part of Government, was Rs. 2,44,596, as per Memo. appended.

30. The following figures show separately the amount of Duty realized during the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 :—

YEARS.			Imports.	Exports.	Total.
1866-67,	6,448	2,86,919	2,93,367
1867-68,	4,937	4,32,192	4,37,129
Increase ..			—	1,45,273	1,43,762
Decrease...			1,511

31. The above shows an increase of Rs. 1,43,762, entirely owing to Exports, for there was a decrease of Rs. 1,511 in Imports. A large quantity of Imports are received via Calcutta and Rangoon at which Ports the Import Duty is often paid.

32. The increase in Export Duty was caused by more Grain having been exported to Foreign Ports. The increase would have been much greater, but ships were not available to carry the grain.

33. Statement Z. shows the quantity of Rice and Timber exported during the year, and the following figures show the result as regards Rice for the year 1866-67 and 1867-68 ;—

Y E A R S.			Tons.	Valuc.
1866-67,	81,391	37,43,860
1867-68,	97,681	39,56,826
Increase...			16,290	2,12,966

34. The above figures shows an increase both in quantity and value, yet the quantity exported during the past year falls short of the average export by in round numbers 23,000 tons, and which most assuredly would have been exported (if not more) had ships been available ; indeed, from enquiries I have made, there appears to be from 20 to 25,000 tons of Rice in store in the Merchants godowns and ready for shipment. Ships are eagerly taken up at even the high freight of from £4 7s. to £4 15s. and at these high rates sufficient tonnage cannot be obtained.

35. In March 1867 the Duty on Grain was increased, and the Merchants had an idea that they were to be ruined thereby, but from all accounts the reverse was the result of the shipments, for there was more money made by Rice last year than had been made for years. One firm that ships from the three ports it is said made over seven (7) lakhs of Rupees ; of course this cheerful state of things was not caused by the increased rate of duty ; but chiefly by the short quantity of grain exported which sent up prices in Europe.

36. The following shows the quantity of Grain exported to various places in 1866-67 and 1867-68 :—

	1866-67.	1867-68.	Increase.	Decrease.
United Kingdom, ...	67,779	78,212	10,433	...
Foreign Europe, ...	1,321	5,348	4,027	...
Straits' Settlements, ...	240	240
Other Foreign Ports, ..	214	1,044	830	...
Home or Indian Ports ..	11,837	13,077	1,240	...
Tons..	81,391	97,681	16,530	240

37. It is only occasionally that Grain is shipped to the Straits, and so far as this port is concerned, may be said to have ceased. Saigon is now the favorite port with the Straits traders, and there is every reason to suppose that the trade there will interfere considerably with our grain trade with Europe, for not only is grain cheaper at Saigon than in British Burma, but shipping can be obtained at lower rates for Saigon than for our ports, for the Masters of Ships from China and the Straits would prefer the near port of Saigon to one of ours, more distant.

38. During the past year a branch of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China was established in Akyab, affording the Merchants, as regards money, far more facilities than they had before.

39. There has also been established a Rice Mill (the first erected) by Messrs. Robertson Brothers, and promises to do well, though it is desirable that another mill be erected, for the present one cannot do all the work, and until a second mill be started, the supply of Paddy to keep the present mill going will not be certain; however, there is I believe an inclination to start another mill, but enterprise flags in Akyab, and therefore whether the desire will take root is problematical. One feature in the erection of the present mill is that it was chiefly erected during the rains, and any one that has been for one rains in Akyab will, I am sure, acknowledge that the builder deserves great credit. The mill is erected on made ground on the edge of the Cherogyeah Creek, and there are doubts as to the stability of the chimney; I believe the present brick one will be removed and an iron funnel substituted.

From Captain W. C. PLANT, Deputy Commissioner, Ramree, to Lieutenant-Colonel STEVENSON, Commissioner of Arakan, Akyab,—No. 1, dated Kyouk-Phyoo, 8th April 1868.

I HAVE the honor to submit my Report and Returns for 1867-68, on the Trade and Customs of this District.

II. The value of Imports and Exports for the last two years is as follows :—

	Value in 1866-67.	Value in 1867-68.	Increase in value.
Imports,	3,300	12,971	9,671
Exports,	76,328	1,42,377	66,049

The increase in Imports is entirely due to private enterprise, being increased import of goods, and money to purchase and export Salt, Paddy and Iron wood Sleepers.

To get the true increase of Exports due to private parties, the amount of Treasure exported on account of Government should be deducted, viz :—

Rupees 70,000 in 1866-67, and „ 1,25,000 in 1867-68,

leaving the Exports due to private parties to be

Rupees 6,328 in 1866-67, against „ 17,377 in 1867-68,

showing that Rupees 9,049 worth of goods, &c., were exported, and 9,671 worth imported by private parties in excess of 1866-67; but for the actual trade for 1867-68 we find that the value of imports by private parties in the year amounted to Rupees 12,971, and the exports by private parties in the same period amounted to 17,377. The trade therefore of Ramree district, due to private enterprise, during 1867-68 is represented by a value of Rupees 30,348, a miserably small one, when the size, the population, and the internal water communications of the district are taken into consideration; but with steam communication, with the outer world, the trade of the district would receive that stimulus which it requires so much, mercantile agencies would be certain to spring up, and a general benefit diffused through the district.

III. Excluding the Government Export of Treasure, Rs. 1,25,000, the principal exports during 1867-68 were Salt, Paddy, and Iron wood Sleepers, as follows, contrasted with 1866-67 :—

YEARS.	Salt Value	Paddy Value	Iron wood Sleepers	REMARKS
1866-67, .	4,235	0*	0	*Crops destroyed in Cheduba
1867-68, .	1,282	6,135	1,960
Increase	5,017	6,135	1,960

Increase export in Salt, owing to better market price at Bassein, Akyah, and Rangoon—increase in Iron wood Sleepers, owing to the presence of an agency established for the collection of Sleepers for the Indian Railways.

IV. The chief import was money, Rs. 7,600, by private parties in 1867-68, against none in 1866-67, there being no Paddy or Rice for sale, owing to the destruction of the crops in Cheduba.

In 1867-68 Rupees 3,100 worth of Fish Paste was imported against none in 1866-67. The other articles call for no particular remarks.

V. The number of vessels that visited the Ports during the past two years is as follows :—

YEARS.	No cleared for Home Ports	No cleared for Foreign Ports	Total No of Vessels	Total Tonnage	REMARKS
1866-67, .	6	...	8	651
1867-68, ..	15	...	15	1,145
Increase	7		7	494

VI. No Customs Duties were levied during the year.

VII. In conclusion, and with reference to the latter portion of para. II. of this report, I beg to point out, that in the original draft Contract with the Burma India Steam Navigation Company, Kyouk-Phyoo was mentioned as one of the Ports to be touched at, and as there is a good harbour, with easy access, and as it lays almost in the direct route from Calcutta to Rangoon, it is a matter worthy of consideration, for the improvement and welfare of this district, that a regular steam communication should be established by that Company on receipt of a subsidy from Government, and I trust you will consider the subject worthy of your notice.

8. In explanation of the decrease in Cotton exported, Mr. Edwards (Rangoon) remarks, that the supply which usually found its way from Ava to our markets for exportation appears to have been diverted towards China during the past year.

9. This is probably the case, but a large quantity may also be used up in our own territories.

10. The Returns from Thayet-myo and Toung-oo (our two frontier Stations) gives the following as the Imports from Burma for the past years in raw Cotton -

	THAILAND		HONGKONG
	Maunds	Value	Maund	Value
1861-65,	38,647	6 15 723	52	1,320

11. The Exports for Rangoon and Bassin bing -

1867-68	33 285	5,80 032	786	3 527

12. From the above it would appear that, during the three preceding years, Cotton Home growth, had been exported in round figures -

In 1864-65	Maunds	37 000
1865-66	,	33 000
, 1866-67	,	35,000

While in 1867-68, the proportion of Home grown (not imported,) Cotton came to only about 13,000 maunds. It is thus evident that either our Cotton crops have fallen off considerably, which I am not aware of, or else that our people have retained their Cotton for their own consumption.

13. Cutch. The Exports were

			1866-67	1867-68	Increase	Decrease
RANGOON,	...	Mds	69 829	1 50,768	80 939	.
BASSLIN,	...	"	307	80		226
Total			70,136	1 50,848	Net 80 713

14. The very large increase in exports from Rangoon is ascribed to the duty being taken off by Act XVII of last year. The apparent falling off in Bassein does not require much explanation.

Cutch is manufactured up-country, and as an article of export finds its way to the Rangoon market in preference to that of Bassein.

15. Petroleum.—In Rangoon a decrease of 3,959 maunds.

In Bassein an increase of 1,619 maunds.

The decrease is said to be due to the American Oil being preferred to that obtainable from Burma.

16. Rice and Paddy.

19. Mr. Edwards' remarks are that the Timber trade remains dull, that there has been a slightly enhanced demand for the Europe markets—the falling off being in the Ports subject to the Government of India.

20. Statement Z, both for the Province and also severally for the Ports of Rangoon and Bassein, shows the places to which the grain and timber exported went.

21. Mr. Wells, the Master Attendant of Bassein, offers some remarks on the grain markets, which may be read with interest.

22. His calculations are based on the year 1867-68, as compared with the preceding full twelve months.

23. The causes of increase and decrease in the other articles of Exports will be found detailed in the Reports submitted, and do not appear to require further notice.

24. The decrease it will be observed were in Betel-nut, Crockery-ware, raw Silk, Timber and Tobacco. In respect to the last, the Rangoon Customs Officer ascribes it to an overstock in the market, and bases the assumption on the excessive quantity imported the previous year.

26. The increase in Gunny Bags is noted as predicative of a good season.

In Toung-oo there has been a decrease (besides in Betel-nut) of Ngapee, Woollen goods and Salt.

34. The increase in Export of Cotton Twist, Cotton Piece Goods and Rice and Paddy has been considerable.

The decrease has been in Thayet-myo in Copper, Gold Leaf, Metal-ware, Yellow Orpiment, Ponies and Stick-lac.

In Tong-oo in Gold Leaf, Hardware, Hides, Lacquered-ware, Lead, Silk Piece Goods, Precious Stones, Timber, Wheat and Sundries.

The falling off in Timber is thus shown :—

Toung-oo, 1866-67,...	...	Tons	7,240
„ 1867-68,	„	3,011
Decrease...			4,229

Net decrease as shown above 2,556 tons. This decrease appears from the report of the Deputy Commissioner, Toung-oo, to have been caused by some misunderstanding with the Burmese Government in the working of the Ningyan forests.

The increase in Silk goods imported at Thayet-myo, valued at Rupees 69,757, was nearly balanced by a falling off at Toung-oo of imports in the same article to the value of Rupees 51,035, owing chiefly to a change in the duty at Ningyan. The imports of Lacquered-ware also decreased by Rupees 14,071 in value at Toung-oo, owing to the disturbances in the Shan country.

The increase in raw Cotton, Piece Goods, Cutch, Jagery and Molasses and Sundries has been considerable; also in Lacquered-ware via Thayet-myo.

I beg to notice with much satisfaction the services of Mr. R. S. Edwards, Collector of Customs, Rangoon, and of Mr. Geo. Wells, Collector of Customs, Bassein, and to recommend them to the Chief Commissioner.

44. Major Munro, Assistant Commissioner, and Major McMahon, Deputy Commissioner, Ex-officio Customs Officers at Thayet-myo and Toung-oo, deserve favorable mention for the extra duty which they have performed and the intelligent reports submitted by them.

The following is the result of the Export and Import trade, and of Customs receipts for the year 1867-68 as compared with 1866-67 :—

Years.	Exports.	Imports.	Total.	Customs Receipts.
1867-68,	197,08,976 7	266,84,739 8	463,93,715 15	12,38,849 1
1866-67,	188,84,251 0	219,69,654 0	408,53,905 0	6,96,065 0
Increase,	8,24,725 7	47,15,085 8	55,39,810 15	5,42,784 1

These are gratifying facts, after a period of depression, such as that recorded in my last report.

The Customs Receipts in the above table include Confiscations, Fines, Wharfage, &c., amounting to Rupees 13,561-5, as detailed below :—

I now beg to append a brief account of the principal articles entered for Export in 1867-68 :—

Copper.—The quantity exported has been maunds 823½, valued at Rs. 21,452-10 against maunds 323½ valued at Rs. 13,795, showing an increase of maunds 499½ and Rs. 7,657-10 over the year 1866-67.

Cotton, raw.—I have to note again the continued falling off in the exportation of Cotton. Much of this raw product which usually found its way from Ava to our markets for exportation appears to have been directed towards China during the past year. For 1867-68 the quantity exported was maunds 33,284½ of the value of Rs. 5,80,032-13 against maunds 43,019 and Rs. 8,67,963 in the previous year.

Cutch.—The export of this commodity has very much increased since the duty was taken off it under the new Act XVII of 6th March 1867. The value of (dutiabie) Cutch exported to Foreign ports in 1866-67 was Rs. 2,85,045-10 only. After it became free it rose to Rs. 8,10,194-4.

being an increase over the previous year of 73,087 in number and Rs. 58,127-3; as shown below ; attributable to the supplies brought down from Upper Burma which replenished the Hide market here.

Jade Stones.—The exportation of this article has considerably improved since the removal of the duty hitherto levied thereon. Much of it finds its way back from China worked up into ornaments which are highly appreciated amongst the people of this and adjoining territories.

Orpiment, Yellow.—There is a decrease in this commodity as compared with the past year. The entire quantity here mentioned was entered for export to the Home ports subject to the Government of India.

Petroleum.—The exportation of Petroleum to Foreign ports has always been small, owing to the preference that is naturally given to oil of American extraction. What is exported from hence is principally taken for consumption to the other divisions of British Burma, or to British Indian ports. As compared with 1866-67, there is a decrease in the present year of maunds 3,958½ valued at Rs. 22,215-14.

Rice and Paddy.—Our exports in grain, notwithstanding the extra duty put upon it, in the early part of the year, have amounted to 1,63,141½ tons valued at Rs. 82,44,046-11. Of this quantity it may be mentioned that tons 1,32,586½ valued at Rs. 66,04,197-4 were duty paying cargoes against tons 76,728½, only valued at Rs. 43,82,971-9 in the preceding year. The general results of exports in this staple for 1867-68 show an increase of tons 55,282 and Rs. 21,38,109-3 as detailed below.

The average price in 1867-68, of Clean Rice per 100 baskets was Rs. 188—of Cargo Rice Rs. 140—and Paddy Rs. 70. The rates are very favorable when compared with 1866-67.

Precious Stones.—The value of Precious Stones this year was Rs. 2,28,410 against Rs. 2,41,725 in the previous one, showing a decrease of Rs. 13,315.

Tobacco.—A decrease to the extent of maunds 2,514 $\frac{3}{4}$ and Rs. 41,801 has taken place in Tobacco; which is caused by the exports having been less in this year to our own ports within British Burma.

Rangoon from other divisions of this Province, the quantity for 1867-68, is maunds 11,118 of the declared value of Rs. 26,418-8, against maunds 28,541 valued at 76,945 in 1866-67, that is 17,423 maunds less in the period under review. This deficiency has probably arisen from the circumstance that so much more Foreign Salt than heretofore was thrown into the market, causing a reduction in price.

From G. F. WHEELS, Esq., Collector of Customs, to the Commissioner of Pegu,—No. 5, Bassein, the 8th April 1868.

I HAVE the honor to submit a Report on the Trade and Customs of Bassein for the year 1867-68, ending 31st March, with Statements X. Y. Z., and Statement of Receipts and Disbursements, and a Comparative Statement of Vessels cleared out during 1866-67 and 1867-68.

This shows the principal Articles of Export and Import that have been entered at the Custom House during the year.
Statement X.

This is an Abstract Statement of the value of Exports and Imports, and shows the Port to and from which they have been sent or received, as also the amount of duty collected.
Statement Y.

This Statement is an Abstract of the quantity of Grain and Timber exported from the Port.
Statement Z.

This is a Statement of Receipts and Disbursements, showing that the only expenditure over the working expenses of the Office has been Rs. 111-4 on account of duty refunded.
Statements XV and XVI (not printed)

This Statement compares the number of Vessels that have cleared out this year with the number cleared out during the preceding one. The noticeable feature in this Statement is the small proportion of Foreign Vessels that have visited the Port.
Comparative Statement.

As the Statements referring to the Imports and Exports above noted take account only of the year under review, and as it is necessary for a right understanding of the state of the Trade that a comparison should be made, it will be necessary for me to introduce comparative tables from time to time in this report. In the following table is presented the total value of the Import and Export trade for the past year, compared with the one preceding it.

The value of Treasure is included.

Δ.

Statement showing the total value of Imports and Exports and the Duty realized for 1867-68 and the previous year.

YEARS.	Total Ex-ports.	Total Im-ports.	Total Im-ports and Exports	DUTY.
				Exports.	Imports
1866-67, ...	13,33,931	1,63,671	11,97,602	95,520	348-5
1867-68, .	15,74,681	2,05,886	17,80,567	1,80,990	1,767-5
Total Increase	2,82,965	85,470	1,419-0

This table shows the total value of the trade of this port to have been for the past year Rupees 17,80,567, showing an increase over the preceding one of 2,82,965 Rupees, and an increase in the Duty collected amounting to 86,889 Rupees.

This apparent increase is caused by 1866-67 including only eleven months, and also by an enhanced rate of Export duty that has been levied during the past official year.

It will not be necessary to say anything in this place on the Imports, but to arrive at a just comparison of the Exports, it will be necessary to compare the 12 months ending 31st March 1867 with the corresponding months ending the 31st March 1868, this is done in the following table :—

Years	Value	Duty.
1866-67,	22,58,998	1,51,428
1867-68,	15,74,681	1,80,990
Total Increase	6,84,317	29,562

Which shows a falling off of nearly seven lakhs of Rupees in the value of the Exports, a small part of this is accounted for by a less quantity of Grain having been shipped during the present compared with the preceding year, but the principal fact to be learned from it is that extravagant rates are now no longer paid for the Rice. The average price for Cargo Rice as reported at this Custom House during the past year being 124½ Rupees per hundred baskets against Rupees 141½ during the preceding year, and about 220 Rupees the year before that. The increase in the amount of duty collected is more than accounted for by the enhanced rates levied, before alluded to.

In the following table is shown the principal Ports to which Grain has been exported, with the quantity and value, that by comparing it with the preceding year it will be seen what particular trade has been effected :—

B.

Total Increase	-	-	-	-	-	-	10,470	-	249	530	-	-

With reference to the total increase of Tonnage and value of Grain, it is again necessary to remember that 1866-67 includes only eleven months ; by comparing the total Tonnage and value for the 12 months ending 31st March 1867 with the 12 months ending 31st March 1868 the following is found :—

Years	Tonnage	Value of Grain
1866-67,	43,062	22,32,027
1867-68,	37,159	15,12,646
Total Increase	5,903	6,89,381

This decrease is to be attributed to the paucity of Tonnage obtainable during the last month of the official year.

With reference to the particular trade that has been effected, it will be seen that there is no revival of the trade with China and the Straits, the principal decrease is shown in the trade with India and Europe.

EXPORTS.

The following table is introduced to show the items that have entered into our Export trade for the year under review and the preceding one, so that the increase and decrease may be seen at a glance.

It will not be necessary in this to note the difference of the number of months in the two years, as with the exception of Grain, treated of elsewhere, other items are not sensibly effected by it.

Last year I had to report a decrease in the quantity exported, and this year shows a still further Cotton. decline occasioned by the small quantity brought to this market, all we have hitherto exported has been sent to Akyab, Nurrungunge and other northern ports, those markets it would appear are supplied from other sources.

Although for the first time a small quantity has been shipped to Europe, there is a falling off in Cutch. the export of this article. As it is manufactured in the interior, it is easily diverted to the Rangoon market, which probably explains why so little finds its way here.

A small increase has taken place in the export of this article, the boats that arrived with Salt from Petroleum. Rannree having taken away more than usual.

This is the staple of our trade and is treated of in an-
 Rice and Paddy. other place.

A small increase in the exportation of this article is shown, occasioned by a vessel that usually Timber. leaves here for Nurrungunge yearly taking this year Timber instead of Cotton.

The increase under this head is caused by a larger ex-
 Sundries portation of Earthen-ware.

IMPORTS.

The following table will show in detail the items entering our Import trade, a comparison is shown between the present and preceding year that the increase or decrease may be readily seen. In the table the two years are taken as complete, as it would make no perceptible difference if April of the preceding year was included.

There has been a slight falling off in the importation of this article again this year. The market would seem to be obtaining supplies from other sources, consequently less has arrived by sea.

Betel-nut,

With reference to this article the decrease simply means that the needed supply has arrived via the creeks instead of by ships.

Gunny Bags,

An increase in the value of these articles imported has taken place caused by a vessel arriving here direct from Europe with a small consignment.

Wines, Beer and Spirits,

A larger increase has taken place in the value of these Sundries. amounting to 60,307 Rupees : this is caused by the importation of a cargo of Coals direct, and an increased importation of Salt coastwise.

With reference to the other items they do not seem to call for any special remark, as they only represent the fluctuations to be expected where the trade is small.

In reviewing the trade of this Port for the past year, with reference to the Imports, little has occurred calling for notice. The one new feature being the importation of a cargo of Coals for the first time direct from Europe. With reference to the Export trade which represents the principal business of the place, I have to offer the following remarks :— I had occasion in my report in 1866-67 to allude to disturbing influences affecting it then. What has been said in treating of the exports in detail shows that those influences are not yet removed or have been replaced by others. It is shown that while the collections on account of duty have increased the increase is not as much as it should have been considering the new rate levied.

It is shown that there has been a large falling off in the value and a small decrease in the quantity of the Grain exported. The difference of value has been alluded to in another place and shown principally to arise from the fact of the price of Rice falling from an extravagant rate in 1865-66 to a fair rate in 1867-68.

With reference to the smaller quantity shipped, this is to be attributed to the non-arrival of vessels during February and March, the last two months of the official year, arising from inability to secure them and not because the crop is either insufficient or of bad quality.

At the beginning of the year under review vessels were holding back for higher freights, and as a corresponding rise of price in the Home Markets for Rice could not be depended on, a reduction in the price paid here was expected, (it should be remembered that for the past two or three years very high rates have been acceded to by the Merchants) some time elapsed before the sellers would meet the demands of the Merchants, so that during May and June very little was done, as however the sellers saw that holding back would not advance their interest, Rice came to market, and as I expected and said in my last report it was bought and ships were engaged to carry it away, so that by the month of December quite a fair average quantity of the crop had been exported from Bassein. About this time, in consequence of the Abyssinian expedition, tonnage was scarce, so that 1,000 tons of the old crop was left and still is in the Merchants' godowns. The new season commenced, as far as the crops went, with the prospect of a fair business being done, but tonnage was very scarce.

The earlier ships that have usually loaded here or rather the vessels that have loaded usually during the earlier part of the season, have been those chartered in India, while the Home chartered ships have arrived later, the Indian charters have generally arrived from Western India and from the Straits and China. The Indian ships would appear to have been taken up for Abyssinia, and the China ones would appear to have found employment there, probably to carry cargoes from Saigon and Siam. The non-arrival of either seeking or chartered ships from the Eastern Seas would lead to the conclusion that those countries are competing with Burma in the Home Markets, to what extent I have not sufficient information to say. To take a broader view of the case, it should be remembered that for the past few years freights have been so low that there has been a great falling off in the number of ships built, and this amongst Foreign as well as British, for it will be noticed that a much smaller proportion of Foreign vessels has entered the Port of Bassein.

The conclusion I come to is, that the Rice trade is not depressed, but suffering from disturbing influences that are correcting themselves, and that though this season has opened dull, I doubt not that all the Rice the holders are willing to sell at fair prices will be exported during the rains, but as vessels must have paying freights, and as Burma has not entire command of the market at home, growers must submit to receive a lower price for their grain, but not lower than will be fairly remunerative.

There is one additional Statement, being a Comparative Statement of Imports and Exports for the official year 1866-67 and 1867-68, Customs No. 19, forwarded by the Commissioner to be filled in and accompany the report.

The year 1866-67 consisted of 11 months only, and last year's Report and Returns showed a comparison of the trade for 11 months in 1866-67 against 11 months in 1865-66—but as the present official year contains 12 months, I have included April of 1866-67 to make a comparison of the trade in the two years under review.

In 1866-67 the total value of the Export side was... Rs. 70,97,706 3
 In 1867-68 do. do. „ 138,23,069 4

The increase value of Rice, Paddy, and Cotton Piece Goods is very large, and appears to have resulted from the lowering of the Customs levied at Minhla in Upper Burma from 10 to . per cent under the treaty, and the impetus given to trade in consequence.

	Baskets.	Tons.	Valuing Rs.
In 1866-67 the amount of Paddy

In 1867-68	...	3 92,490	20,49 500

Showing a total increase in the value of these three articles of export alone of Rs. 42,51,318.

There is also a very great increase in the Import of Raw Cotton, Cutch, Jaggery and Molasses, and Cotton Piece Goods.

	Maunds.	Valuing Rs.
Raw Cotton in 1866-67 amounted to	13,987	1,55,980
Do. in 1867-68 ...	19,680	2,70,368
Cutch in 1866-67 amounted to ...	37,666	1,32,424
Do. in 1867-68 ...	87,681	3,08,255
Jaggery and Molasses in 1866-67 ...	1,15,909	3,27,561

Cotton Piece Goods in 1866-67	5,60,597	5,58,213
Do. in 1867-68	8,67,746	7,90,378

Showing a total increase in these articles of trade in 1867-68 of Rs. 7,99,599.

The Cotton Piece Goods consist of coarse stuffs woven in Upper Burma partly from Native thread and very largely from Cotton Twist exported from British Burma.

The increase article "Miscellaneous" on the Import side is also very large, amounting to 33 lakhs and 94 thousand; a large portion of this is Treasure; in Silver alone there was imported 10 lakhs and 34 thousand.

The trade between British and Upper Burma is principally carried on by native boats and Steamers: H. M. the King has three Steamers which run between Mandalay and Rangoon, and Steamers belonging to Messrs. Todd, Findlay & Co. also occasionally run to Mandalay. The King's Steamers made 9 trips up and down during the past 12 months: and Messrs. Todd, Findlay & Co.'s Steamers during the past year made 11 trips upwards and 10 downwards.

The total number and tonnage of Boats that passed up and down are as follows :—

	No.	Tonnage.
In 1866-67, ...	18,161	1,35,168
In 1867-68, ...	31,582	3,02,371

Showing an increase in number and tonnage of 13,421 and 1,66,903.

It will therefore be seen that the trade in 1867-68 has largely increased and has been very prosperous. This is partly due to the more settled state of Upper Burma since the suppression of the late rebellion, and also to the reduction made by H. M. the King in his Customs duties.

From Major A. R. McMAHON, Deputy Commissioner and Ex-officio Collector of Customs, Toung-oo, to the Commissioner of Pegu, Rangoon, — No. 1, dated Toung-oo, the 9th April 1868.

I HAVE the honor to submit the Report on Customs for the District together with the Annual Statements mentioned in the margin for the year 1867-68.

X. Y. & Z.

2. The value of Imports in the year 1867-68 amounted to Rupees 8,56,470 compared with Rupees 9,32,132 the previous year, which consisted of only eleven months, showing a decrease on the value of imports of Rupees 75,662.

3. The value of Exports in 1867-68 amounted to Rupees 9,58,109 compared with Rupees 7,83,372 the previous year, showing an increase in the value of exports amounting to Rupees 1,74,737.

4. The actual increase of trade is therefore estimated at Rupees 99,075.

5. The most important items of decrease in the Import trade are as follows :—

Rupees 1,43,590 in value of Timber.
„	51,034	do.	Silk Piece Goods.
„	14,070	do.	Lacquered-ware

6. The falling off of the Timber trade is attributable, 1st, To the alleged fact that the King of Burma after having given permission to any person to work the Ningyan forests on payment of a duty of Rupees 10 per log, sold the forests to a single contractor, and at the same time put an embargo on the floating of timber during the most propitious months for that purpose.

2nd. When permission was granted after reference to Mandalay, the season was too far advanced to recover thousands of logs which, owing to the unprecedented flood that occurred last October were scattered all over the country.

7. The decline in the value of Silk Piece Goods is accounted for :—

1st. By the greater demand at Mandalay.

2nd. To the fact that this commodity is now taxed at Ningyan at 5 per cent ad valorem instead of by the cart load, as was the case it appears in 1866-67, hence the price of the goods is so enhanced by the extra duty as not to be able to compete with the English market.

3rd. Because it is said a number of weavers have left Burma Proper and have taken up their residence in British Burma, especially in Prome.

The falling of in the value of lacquered-ware is attributable to disturbances in the Shan States.

9. Most of the other imports have increased in value, the most noticeable exhibit the following results :—

Stick-lac,	35,045
Ponies,	33,910
Cutch,	20,315
Molasses,	19,368
Cotton Piece Goods,	18,112
Earth Oil,	1,284

10. The most important items of increase in the Export trade exhibit the following results :—

Cotton Piece Goods,	1,06,635
Miscellaneous articles,	59,514
Silk Piece Goods,	23,719
Cotton Twist,	19,164
Rice and Paddy,	10,967

11. By the above results it will be seen that although the Import trade of Cotton Piece Goods exhibits a respectable increase in value, the value of the export trade in the same article is more than nine times as much, and that the stagnation of the imports of Silk Piece Goods has given a healthy impulse to the export trade.

12. The increase in the Rice and Paddy trade exhibits the value of exports to Upper Burma when there was a scarcity there last year. This year grain is comparatively cheap across the frontier, and dear in Toung-oo; consequently no export will take place, and owing to the authorities at Ningyan not recognising the principles of free trade, the imports will probably be nil, as an embargo has I understand been put on the export of grain.

13. The export trade of Betel-nut exhibits a falling off of Rupees 24,086, which is accounted for by the market in Upper Burma having been glutted last year causing a reaction this year.

14. The export of Ngapee and Salt Fish fell off in value to the amount of Rupees 22,840 owing to most of these commodities having found a ready sale on this side of the frontier.

15. As the alterations in tariff do not effect Toung-oo, no special report seems necessary thereon.

Changes in Tariff.

From Major A. R. McMAHON, Deputy Commissioner and Ex-officio Collector of Customs, Toung-oo, to the Commissioner of Pegu, Rangoon,—
No. 2, dated Toung-oo, the 5th May 1868.

WITH reference to your Memo. No. 8, dated 21st April 1868 commenting on the meagreness of my Custom's Report, I have the honor to report that in framing it I was guided by my predecessors reports of the two previous years, and feared that going more into details than has been the custom hitherto I might be accused of prolixity; I refrained therefore from recording any matter that might be considered redundant.

I now beg to submit detailed information as regards increase and decrease in each item of export and import.

EXPORT.

1. Decrease attributable to the market having been glutted in Upper Burma in 1866-67 causing a reaction in 1867-68.

 Betel-nut. Decrease
Rs. 24,088.

2. Ascribed partly to the demand for English Yarn because the people find it pays them better than spinning their own, and partly to the prices having lowered so much as to tempt traders to export.

 Cotton Twist Yarn.
Increase Rs. 19,164.

3. Increase ascribed to the demand for this article of European manufacture having increased as soon as the country became settled although prices were not abated on this side.

 Crockery-ware. Increase Rs. 1,191.

4. The decrease is partly owing perhaps to the markets in Upper Burma being overstocked and partly to the greater demand in Shwé-gyeen and Toun-oo for home consumption.

 Ngapee and dried fish. Decrease 22,840.

5. Increase due to the growing appreciation for English Piece Goods.

 Piece Goods Cotton.
Increase 1,06,635.

6. The import trade has fallen off for reasons assigned under this head in the import statement, thereby causing a healthy impetus to the export trade.

 Piece Goods Silk.
Increase 22,719.

7. The apparent falling off in the demand for this article is attributable to the fact that traders from Mandalay who are the largest consumers did not arrive as usual in February and March, but delayed till April.

 Piece Goods Woolen. Decrease 2,158.

8. The increase is due to a greater demand in Upper Burma owing to great scarcity there during the past year.

Rice and Paddy. Increase Rs. 10,968.

9. In 1866-67 traders were induced owing to the comparative cheapness of Salt to export it largely thereby overstocking the market and causing a less demand during the past year.

Salt. Decrease Rs. 5,626.

10. Increase owing to the demand for this article for the purpose of making putsoes and htamines, many of which will find their way back again.

Silk, raw. Increase Rs. 5,626.

11. Exports under this head have increased yearly—consisting of iron cooking vessels, colored paper, looking glasses, tobacco, &c. &c.

All other articles not enumerated above. Increase Rs. 39,519.

IMPORTS.

1. Increase owing to the Shans having imported copper vessels in large quantities.

Copper. Increase Rs. 897.

2. This slight increase calls for no particular remark.

Cotton raw. Increase Rs. 614.

3. The price of Cutch in Toung-oo rose from 20 to 26 per maund owing to greater demand in Rangoon for export—hence an impetus was given to the import trade.

Cutch. Increase Rs. 20,034.

4. Increase owing to the increased demand for export from British Burma.

Dyes. Increase Rs. 1,976-8.

5. Increase calls for no remark.

Earthenware. Increase Rs. 144.

6. No remark.

Gold leaf. Decrease Rs. 40.

7. No remark.

Gram. Increase Rs. 665.

Hardware, 8. No remark.

Hides, Bullock and Buffaloe, Decrease
Rs. 36. 9. No remark.

Horns, 10. No remark.

Indigo, 11. No remark.

12. Increase owing to the great demand in Toung-oo and Shwé-gyeen during the rains and faci-Jaggery and Molasses. Increase Rs.
19,369. lity of access from Burma Proper by the river.

13. Decrease attributable to the unsettled state of the Shan Country throwing several workmen
Lacquered-ware.
Decrease Rs. 14,070. out of employ.

Lead. Decrease Rs.
72. 14. No remark.

15. Increase owing to demand for Gongs by the Burmese as well as the Karens.
Metal-ware. Increase Rs. 2,168.

Orpiment, yellow. 16. No remark.

17. Increase owing to increased demand.
Petroleum. Increase Rs. 1,284.

18. Although there is a great demand for Cotton Piece Goods of foreign manufacture in Upper Burma, the demand for coarser and less expensive goods still holds its own, hence the increase.
Piece Goods, Cotton. Increase Rs
18,114.

19. The falling off in value of Piece
Goods is accounted for—
Piece Goods, Silk,
Decrease Rs. 51,035.

1st. By the greater demand at Mandalay.

2nd. To the fact that this commodity is taxed at Ningyan at 5 per cent ad valorem instead of by the cart load as formerly, which so enhances the value of the goods as to prevent them competing.

20. The increase in the number of Ponies is no doubt owing greatly to the improved traffic caused by the Chief Bogye keeping the Gekho route open.

Ponies. Increase
Rs. 33,910.

21. Increase attributable to the high prices that ruled in Toung-oo owing to scarcity of the article.

Sessanum Oil. Increase
Rs. 8,440.

22. The increase is owing to the demand in Rangoon for export. The traders here watch the markets at Rangoon and import or not from the Shan States accordingly.

Stick-lac. Increase
Rs. 35,045.

23. The falling off is attributable to disturbances in the territory from which precious stones are brought.

Stones, precious.
Decrease Rs. 6,811.

Sugar. 24. None.

Tea, dry. Increase
Rs. 701. 25. No remark.

26. The increase is owing to the demand caused in Toung-oo by a great scarcity of this article.

Tea, wet, pickled.
Increase Rs. 4,065.

27. The reason for this decrease as detailed at length in the body of the report.

Timber. Decrease
Rs. 1,43,590.

28. Increase owing to the demand for a peculiar kind of Shan Tobacco.

Tobacco. Increase
Rs. 2,580.

Wheat. 29. No remark.

30. Decrease chiefly attributable to the restriction put on the export of Cattle.

All other articles not enumerated above. Decrease Rs.
9,399.

REPORT

ON THE TRADE AND CUSTOMS OF THE TENASSERIM DIVISION OF BRITISH BURMA, FOR THE YEAR 1867-68.

From Lieutenant-Colonel E. M. RYAN, Officiating Commissioner of Tenasserim Division British Burma, to HORACE STEARMAN, Esquire, Assistant Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, British Burma,—No. 59 of 1868-69, dated Maulmain, the 8th May 1868.

I HAVE the honor to forward the Annual Trade Returns Trade Report Section VII 1867-68. X. Y. Z. and Statements A. B. C. D. for the past official year.

2. There is a general increase in Exports of the value
Exports. of Rupees 3,03,665 as shown below, caused principally by the previous year's returns showing the results for 11 months only. Also owing to the enhanced rate of Export duty levied on Grain by Act XVII of 1867 passed on the 11th March 1867.

Total...				—	—	65,25,816	68,29,481	3,03,665	—

4. The item which shows the largest increase next to Sundries is our chief staple Timber, of which 62,470½ tons of the value of Rupees 35,74,620 were exported during the year, being in excess over the previous year of 14,068 tons. In Maulmain alone under this head there was an increase in value of Rupees 23,685. This is attributable to there having been larger demands from Indian and Home ports, and a general improvement in the Timber trade. In Sundries there is an increase of Rupees 5,38,700, derived from many and various articles exported. There is an increase in Tobacco, Orpiment yellow, Lead and Ivory, these fluctuate yearly. Hides and Horns have also increased in value a little, but there is a falling off of the latter item by 3,423 in number, caused by there having been less mortality amongst the cattle, and enhanced prices paid for the horns exported.

5. The largest decrease in Exports were in Rice and Paddy, viz., 4,423 tons valued at Rupees 2,98,639, this is chiefly owing to less demand and enhanced rates of duty levied on Grain during the year, which has tended in a measure to lessen the shipments of this staple. At Maulmain there was an increase of 3,323 tons in exportation of Rice, whereas Paddy decreased by 6,493 tons. The former was owing to larger shipments made to the Straits Settlements and to Bengal. The decrease in the exportation of Paddy was caused by the native vessels which flock to this port taking Timber away with them instead of Paddy. At Tavoy there was a falling off in Rice of 1,310 tons and an increase in Paddy of 49 tons owing to the low prices of Rice at the dutiable ports. At Mergui there was an increase of 115 tons in Rice, and a decrease of 106 tons in Paddy, which may be attributed to more Rice being exported to Penang during the year and also exports for the whole year being shown against eleven months only of the previous year.

6. The next large item of decrease is in Government Treasure of Rupees 2,47,000, and Treasure for Private parties

1,39,899, the latter decrease was owing doubtless to the dullness in trade.

7. The export of raw Cotton was less by 785 maunds valued at Rupees 33,177 for the year under review. The quantity exported in 1866-67 was 3,055 maunds, and in 1867-68 2,320 maunds. This may be attributed to there being less demand. Copper, Cutch, Petroleum, Precious Stones, and Stick-lac, have more or less decreased, which may be accounted for by general stagnation of trade during the year under review.

8. Under this head (taken as a whole) as in Exports, there was a satisfactory increase of Rupees 3,91,637. The value of Imports for the past two years is as follows :—

1866-67	Rs 66,61,925
1867-68	.. 70,59,562

Increase Rs 3,91,637

The undernoted Comparative Statement shows the increase and decrease in each item of Imports :—

9. From the foregoing return it will be seen that there was a large increase in Piece Goods of all descriptions as well as of Cotton Twist, Yarn, raw Silk and Betel-nut—this was caused principally by there being a brisker trade during the year in Timber which gave an impetus to the demand for the above articles. A great number of vessels also arrived during the year bringing with them cargoes of the above named description. The largest increase has occurred in Maulmain as will be seen from the list here given, viz :—

					Value Rs
1.	Betel-nut,	33,860
2.	Cotton Twist and Yarn,	32,645
3.	Piece Goods, Cotton,	1,42,233
4.	„ Silk,	57,020
5.	„ Woollen,	45,047
6.	Silk, raw,	1,385

10. The import of Treasure on account of Private parties has considerably increased, owing principally to larger remittances being received for purchase of Timber, &c. Slabs and Shingles have also increased slightly, caused by a little more importation in Tavoy and Mergui. In Sundries there is a large increase of Rupees 31,227 which is made up of various articles, calling for no special remark.

11. The decrease in Imports during the past year was in the following items :—Crockery-ware, Cutlery, Hardware, Gunny bags, Liquors, Sugar, Tobacco, Wines, Beer, &c., and Treasure for Government. This may be attributed to larger quantities having been imported in the year previous. Sugar and Spirituous Liquors have fallen off, which may be partly attributed to there being a local manufacture of those commodities. Tobacco was not so largely imported from Coringa during the past year owing to there being a large quantity unsold from former years.

12. The Tables given below show the relative value of Imports and Exports for the past two years, and the amount of Duty, exclusive of Fines, Confiscations and Godown Rent.

13. There is a net increase of Rupees 6,98,301 in Imports and Exports during the year under review, particulars of which have already been stated in this report. In Customs Revenue there is also a large increase of Rupees 33,369 which would be still greater were Fines, Confiscations, Godown Rent, &c. included in it. This increase is chiefly attributable to the enhanced rate of Export duty levied on Grain and also to the large importations of Piece Goods, &c. during the year. The largest increase under this head has occurred in Maulmain which amounts to Rupees 28,709.

14. The trade in Rice, Paddy and Timber at the ports of Maulmain, Tavoy and Mergui for the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 is shown in the following Table :—

15. The principal Imports on account of Government have during the past year decreased by Rupees 19,307. The value of Imports in 1867-68 was Rupees 4,95,091 whilst that in the year previous was Rupees 5,14,398. Fines and Confiscations have also decreased by Rupees 1,695-11-10.

16. The returns A. B. C. D. which accompany this report speak for themselves, they profess to show the effect of the alterations of Duty since Act XVII of 1867 took effect. Two additional Statements of Imports and Exports are supplemented by Mr. Twemlow, they show the effect of the new Tariff which includes and excludes certain articles not in the old Tariff, and shows what Duty has been abandoned on articles in the new Tariff.

17. I have every reason to be satisfied with the manner Mr. Twemlow and the Deputy Commissioners as Ex-officio Customs Officers have conducted their duties for the year under review.

From W. TWEMLOW, Esq., Collector of Custom, to the Commissioner of Tenasserim Division British Burma, Maulmain,—No. 10, Maulmain Custom House, the 17th April 1868.

I HAVE the honor to forward the Annual Trade Returns X. Y. and Z. for the year 1867-68.

It is usual to forward with these Statements A. B. C. and D., which professes to show the effect of alterations of Duty since Act XVII of 1867, passed on the 11th March 1867, took effect. The previous year's Returns showed the results for 11 months. Those now prepared are comparisons for the whole year of 1867-68 with that of 1866-67.

Two Supplemental Statements are also given to show the effect of the new Tariff which includes and excludes certain articles not in the old Tariff, and thus is shown what duty has been abandoned by articles not appearing in the Tariff.

The aggregate of Imports and Exports amounts to 123,95,899 Rupees. The previous year the amount was 128,65,811. The decrease this year amounts to 4,69,912, which will be accounted for when the Exports and Imports are separately reviewed.

EXPORTS.

The aggregate of Exports is Rupees 30,43,726. In the previous year it was 64,96,501, showing a decrease of 4,52,775 Rupees.

Taking the items separately those which show a decrease are as follows :—

Copper,	4,096
Cotton, raw,	46,827
Cutch,	2,777
Hides,	2,409
Horns,	192
Petroleum,	3,010
Paddy and Rice,	5,13,865
Stones, Precious,	500
Stick-lac,	3,777
Tobacco,	5,344
Treasure for Government,	1,02,000
" Private Parties,	1,05,944

Total 7,90,241

The items that show an increase are :—

Ivory,	544
Lead,	2,515
Orpiment, yellow,	3,780
Timber,	23,685
Sundries,	3,06,942

Total...3,37,466

The items that show the largest decrease are Cotton, Grain and Treasure. The Export trade was to some extent depressed on account of the general stagnation prevailing in Rengal and England.

IMPORTS.

The Imports amounts to Rs. 63,52,173. In the previous year it was Rs. 63,69,310, showing a small decrease of 17,137 Rupees.

The items that exhibit a decrease are :—

Crockery-ware,	14,797
Cutlery,	51,004
Gunny Bags,	65,728
Hardware,	16,999
Spirits,	14,870
Sugar,	35,531
Timber,	120
Tobacco,	81,499
Wines and Beer,	12,713
Treasure for Government,	19,600
Sundries,	1,80,145

Total...4,92,906

The items that show an increase are :—

Betel-nut,	33,860
Cotton Twist and Yarn,	32,645
Piece Goods, Cotton,	1,42,233
„ Silk,	57,020
„ Woollen,	45,047
Silk, raw,	1,385
Private Treasure,	1,63,579

Total...4,75,769

The Duty collections of this department have not diminished notwithstanding that trade has been so stagnant. They amount this year to Rs. 2,19,315, while in the previous year the amount was Rupees 1,11,341, being an increase of Rupees 7,972, which is satisfactory. If this year's results be contrasted with that of 1865-66 it will show a larger increase of Rupees 15,938.

I beg to state that during the year several cases of smuggling of Opium and Spirits have been brought to light, through the activity of the Officers of this department, but more especially Mr. G. Peché, the Superintendent of the Preventive Service. The Opium cases were tried by the Magistrate. In one case a Chinaman was detected endeavoring to pass Gunpowder by describing it as Wheat flour, for which he was duly punished. In another case the Master of a Chinese Junk was convicted and punished for selling 10 cases of Brandy to one of the shops which were surreptitiously brought ashore and on which duty had not been paid. The principal smuggling I fear is carried on in remote places, such as Yea, Henzai, Karoopee, Beeloogyoon, and on the north eastern side of Amherst or the Village of Wagroo. I think that if the Deputy Commissioner were apprised of this, that it would be in his power to direct the Myo-okos and Native Officials in those quarters to give assistance and to apprehend parties who break bulk from vessels which come in from Penang. In like manner, there is no check over vessels which take in Rice there to evade the duty.

If all Junks from the Straits were boarded by the Government Pilot in conjunction with a Preventive Officer and brought up to town by a Pilot, like other Native Crafts, there would be some check over Chinese smugglers.

From Lieut.-Colonel G FAITHFULL, Deputy Commissioner, and Ex-officio Collector of Customs, to the Commissioner Tenasserim Division British Burma,—No. 6, dated Tavoy, the 15th April 1868.

I HAVE the honor to submit a report of business transacted in the Customs Department Tavoy, for the year 1867-68 with the Statements X. Y. Z.

The total collection of Customs duties in 1867-68 is Rupees 22,262, showing, as compared with that of last year's collections, an increase of Rupees 2,722.

2. The collections on Exports in the past year amounts to Rupees 19,159, which exceeds by Rupees 1,714 over that of the preceding year, owing to the enhanced rate of Export duty levied on Grain according to the instruction conveyed in the Notification published in the Gazette Extraordinary of British Burma, dated Rangoon the 8th March 1867, received here with the Commissioner's Circular No. and date as per margin, which took effect on the 27th March 1867, although upwards of 37,000 maunds or 46,000 baskets of less quantity of Rice exported to the dutiable Ports during 1867-68 than in the previous year.

3. The amount of duty on Imports in the year 1867-68 is Rupees 3,103. In comparing this with the collections under the same head of the preceding year, there is an increase of Rupees 1,008, chiefly owing to 319 gallons of Gin and Brandy imported during the year whilst none were imported in the previous year.

4. The total value of dutiable Exports in 1867-68 is Rupees 1,30,339, and in the previous year it amounted to Rupees 2,14,141, there being a falling off of 83,802 Rupees, which is entirely owing to the smaller quantity of Rice exported during the past year to the dutiable Ports than last year, as the price of Rice being too low at those Ports to remunerate the shippers, and the number of vessels that have left for the dutiable Ports (Penang and Siamese Ports) has been less by 12 vessels.

5. The total value of dutiable goods imported during the past year shows an increase of Rupees 1,763. The value in 1866-67 being 31,697 Rupees, and in 1867-68 Rupees 33,460. This increase is solely attributable to the importation of Spirits as stated in para. 3.

6. The total value of free Exports in 1867-68 is Rupees 2,12,056 whilst in the previous year it was only 1,30,171 Rupees, showing an increase of Rupees 81,885 owing to the trade with free Ports having been brisker in 1867-68—about 62 vessels more than in the previous year cleared out for free Ports.

7. The value of free goods imported from free Ports in 1867-68 amounts to Rupees 212,917 and in the previous it was 2,04,359 Rupees, increase Rupees 9,558 may be set down to the number of vessels that arrived at this Port from free Ports having been larger this year than the previous year.

8. The Treasure exported during 1867-68 amount to Rupees 15,010, excluding 80,000 Rupees remitted on account of Government, there is a decrease of Rupees 10,485 when compared with Treasure exported in 1866-67. Treasure is generally exported from Tavoy for the purpose of purchasing Rice at Rangoon and Maulmain, and some times at Bassein, for sale at dutiable Ports, but the higher price prevailing at the former Ports making it unremunerative debarred the shippers from exports of Treasure.

9. Treasure imports during the past year is Rupees 1,43,518, a decrease on last year's imports by 57,902 Rupees, owing to the falling off of the Rice trade this year with dutiable Ports, and the smaller number of vessels cleared out for those Ports.

Abstract Statement of Ships and Tonnage

Do. do. of Imports and Exports for 4 years.

I HAVE the honor to forward the Customs Returns of this Port for the year 1867-68, with a report as per marginally noted.

TRADE REPORT OF MERGUI FOR THE YEAR 1867-68.

The Export and Import trade of Mergui is small and principally local.

The value of Exports and Imports for the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 are as follows :—

	Imports.	Exports.
1866-67, ...	Rs. 52,352 12 3	Rs. 24,986 14 11
1867-68, ...	„ 48,016 3 6	„ 40,833 9 1
Increase, „ 15,846 10 2
Decrease, ...	Rs. 4,336 8 9

The above statement shows a decrease in foreign Imports, caused by the smaller import of private treasure and a large increase to the Exports from increase export of Grain to Penang, and also exports for the whole year being shown against eleven months last year.

The Comparative Statement of Grain exported to Foreign Ports during the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 is as follows :—

		Maunds		Value		Duty
Rice, ...	1866-67,	13,408	Rs	20,313 12 9	Rs	1,676 1 7
Do ...	1867-68,	18,183	"	21,455 5 0	"	3,410 4 0
	Increase...	4,780	Rs	1,106 11 3	Rs.	1,734 2 5
	Paddy...	411½	"	260 0 0	"	77 2 6
		5,191½	Rs.	1,366 11 3	Rs.	1,811 4 11

The above statement shows an increase in quantity, value, and Customs duty. The value has not increased in the same ratio with the quantity, owing to the low price of Rice this year, and the large quantity in store. The large increase in Customs duty is caused by the enhanced duty on grain which came into force here on the 1st of the official year.

The following shows the Customs Collections for the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 :—

	Export Duty	Import Duty.	Total
1866-67. ..	Rs 1,738 7 8	Rs 1,312 1 1	Rs 3,050 11 9
1867-68, ..	3,582 12 8	" 1,405 11 6	" 4,988 8 2
Increase Rs	1,844 5 0	Rs 93 7 5	Rs 1,937 12 5

The above statement shows a very satisfactory increase on both Export and Import duty, owing principally to the extra duty on grain.

The value of Exports and Imports to Home Ports for the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 is as follows :—

	Exports.	Imports.
1866-67, ...	Rs. 2,96,086	Rs 1,90,159
1867-68, ...	3,07,517	" 2,68,478
Increase Rs.	11,431	Rs. 78,319

The above statement shows a large increase both in Exports and Imports caused by the gradually increasing trade of the port.

The total value of all Exports and Imports during the years 1866-67 and 1867-68 is as per statement :—

1866-67,	...	Rs. 563,583
1867-68,	...	„ 664,814
Increase, ..		Rs 101,261

The above increase shows that the trade of the port is steadily increasing and for the last three years there has been a large increase, and there is every prospect of its continuing to do so.

- During the past year 337 baskets of Sessamum, value Rupees 1,011, have been exported to Maulmain, but no Tobacco or Cotton.
